

Bye- Bye Ensi

Leo gives up his dummy

Selin Yuksel

Meet Leo the lion. He is a little lion cub who loves his dummy Ensi. Leo had a problem. No matter how hard he try he can't roar.

This wasn't Leo's only problem.
At night he got up whenever his dummy falls off.

Nobody can understand
him because of his
dummy.
His teeth had begun to come forward as well.

One day Leo heard his mum talking on the phone. 'Oh really! Some kids on the moon needs dummy huh?... Leo wants to help the kids but how?

His mum had an idea. Helium balloons can fly far away. So they bought a balloon. Tied Ensi to it and released it.

Leo did a great job but still misses Ensi.
That night he cuddled his bunny. It wasn't that hard as he thought to be. He is a big lion now and big guys wouldn't use dummies.
In the morning he found a letter at the door. This is what exactly written on the letter.

Dear Leo,

I am the mum you gave your dummy to.
Thanks to you, my baby can sleep well with her new dummy. You are a very good boy and I am glad that you had grown so much and don't need dummy anymore.
Thank you very much.

≡ ROAR ≡

Something very different happened that day. All of a sudden Leo started to Roar. He never stopped roaring after that day. At night before he goes to sleep he looks at the sky and blows a kiss to the Moon. Ensi? It seems so happy when I last saw it.

This book is for you my little friend. Leo has given up his dummy. How about you?
